

Magic Pathfinding with author Rose Stauffer

Welcome to my little magazine!

Welcome, magic lovers!

This magazine is a place for sharing with you some of my ideas, inspirations, experiences, musings, and an array of creative endeavors that will inspire and enhance your own journey with finding the magic and joy in your everyday life. Many of you have found your way here after reading my books or hearing about them. This newsletter is a spin off from the books and will offer glimpses into how I found and created my own path into living a life filled with more passion and joy. As usual all the photos are mine.

I was able to spend three weeks on the garden isle at the most magical time in a person's life - to witness the birth of a child. My grandson, to be exact! My daughter and her husband live on Kauai, and also since this is likely to be their only child, I headed that way to be there before, during, and after his arrival.

Lucas took his time leaving the womb and the birth was induced in the hospital on day 5 (past due.) There were so many magical moments in the birth itself; in the days spent before the birth nesting, preparing, planning; and in the week after his birth, holding him, watching him sleep, make faces, and slowly "wake" into the world. Both parents have time off from work to devote the first month of his life to domestic peace.

Kauai seeps into your heart, her simplicity, unmanicured landscapes still holding their ancient vibes, unspoiled by development. I visited the Kauai Museum, and learned how such a tiny island held so many mysteries, birthed from oceanic volcanos millions of years ago.
